58 Duralla St St, Bungendore

Pristine Home and Garden.

Located in a quiet street in the original part of Bungendore, this home presents beautifully. Freshly decorated throughout, neutral tones and modern styling will satisfy those looking for property where everything is done but still has so much potential.

The home accommodates 3 spacious and bright bedrooms and a newly renovated bathroom. The rooms have space enough for a desk and 2 have built in robes.

New timber floors and combustion fireplace complement the separate living area which flows directly through to the kitchen dining. The kitchen boast a large bench top reverse cycle air conditioning and over looks the back yard. A tiled outdoor undercover area flows from the kitchen/dining which is great for entertaining or a kids play area. This combination of living areas really make the property a beautiful home.

The north facing back yard is level and easy care. An established vegetable garden and chook yard are great for that self sufficient lifestyle. There is also a single lock up garage for storage, toys and or workshop. A single carport also accommodates the vehicle.
