

10 Mulga St St, Captains Flat

New carpet New Bathroom

Mulga Street is a quiet street only 100 meters from the school and swimming pool. The land is level with a slight rise to the rear. Plenty of space for kids to run around the yard and a good old shed for the workshop. Dog runs and a wood shed also compliment the property.

The cottage is clean and tidy and presents well from the street, ready for you to move in and put your mark with some fresh garden beds and plantings. The entrance has an enclosed porch which directly opens to the living room. To the left of the front door is a third bedroom or a second living room, sun fills this room and it is a great size.

The kitchen is quaint but has all the basic requirements and plenty of space for a breakfast table.

There is new carpets in the living areas and bedrooms. With three or two bedrooms depending on your set up preferences this property offers value for money.

Two bathrooms are in good condition. The laundry is part of the second bathroom which has shower and toilet. The family bathroom is complete with bath tub and shower.
