5 Shanahan Street, Bungendore

Modern Lifestyle Design

Number 5 Shanahan Street in Bungendore is a shining example of modern living. Construction was completed in December 2008 with spacious living areas and well located bedrooms. Impressive hardwood columns sourced from the old Sydney Wharf draw your attention to the modern facade.

The entrance patio draws attention to featuring modern double doors inviting you inside. Once inside gleaming hardwood floors and a spacious hallway lead to the bedrooms or the formal and informal living accommodating the modern lifestyle we live today.

The 'hub of the home' is a sensational kitchen which has all the features on a buyer's checklist. Caesar Stone bench tops, gas cook top, electric oven, dishwasher, double sink, large pantry, plenty of cupboards, and overlooks the informal dining, family room and level backyard.

Spacious and versatile is the combined lounge/dining room perfect for more formal entertaining or parents retreat after kids are tucked into bed. The informal dining area is perfectly positioned next to the kitchen and seats a six seater table, it has large easterly windows sun drenched at breakfast time. Open plan living areas are functional and the family room is no exception. Sliding doors flow to the back yard
