105 The Mountain Road, Bywong

Spectacular views at this price!!! WOW

This is country living at its best. The Valley View is spectacular from this 25 acre property less than 10 minutes to Bungendore and Canberra is literally over the hill. There is a variety of paddocks split into different sizes and is perfect for running horses or other livestock. The vendors have recently designed and completed extensive planting and landscaping works including an orchard and over 2000 plants.

Everywhere you go on the land there is reason to stop and absorb the amazing views. Or to relax in the various spaces around the gardens. This really is a home for a family, children will love to play cubby houses feed the chickens ride their motor bike and horses. With undulating landscapes and an array of wildlife this property is a one of a kind.

Perfectly positioned, the residence has inside and outside living. A large courtyard is covered by newly built pergola and surrounded by colourful gardens and walling. Accessed directly from the family room or the lounge room is a covered alfresco area to enjoy a meal or drink where you can sit back and enjoy the incredible views of the Clare Valley.

It is not often found where a property combines great views and large living areas. The entrance hallroom is set by the double doors and closed off to the family room
