Rossi

Hampton Wood

This magnificent rural property is 34km southeast of Queanbeyan in the picturesque Rossi valley. The pioneering family of William and Elizabeth White settled here in October 1879 and are the great grandparents of the current owners.

There are also various dams and springs which have never been dry. Hampton Wood has 254 acres and currently runs cattle and sheep. Cattle and sheep have grazed continuously on these properties for almost a century and a half.

Native pastures are full of nutrient rich microlena, wallaby grass, rye grass, fescue and plenty of perennial plants. A combination of granite soil and rich creek flats provide the right environment for plants to thrive.

Hampton Wood $500,000

Hampton Wood includes a two stand shearing shed, a set of sheep yards, all boundaries fencing in working order. Power is not attached to the shed but is very near by.

A fantastic old house has power and great views of the valley, but unfortunately the house has come to the end of its time.
