

Creekview

Creekview is picturesque property with sensational views across grazing country of granite soils with some timbered areas. Perfect for livestock there is plenty of shelter and water. Harolds Cross Creek runs through the property and various springs are also in gullys, and a brook leads from the Northern part of the block (The Swamp) running into Harolds Cross Creek.

Fronting Harolds Cross Road, the property has power and a building entitlement. Access is via a Right of Way behind the sign board shown on Harolds Cross road, Harolds Cross. This property is a subdivision of 664 Harolds Cross Road which can be better described by the satellite view photo or watch the drone video for a better overview.

Perfect for running cattle and sheep as your weekend getaway or the place you can call home. You can see pretty much the entire property from the obvious house site. Framing the property is the most amazing setting of Mountains and forest. You will be taken back how pretty this area is. This is a hidden secret for the trail bikers, bushwalkers, and outdoor enthusiasts.
