11 Angus Place, Bungendore

Gorgeous 4 Bedroom Home

Angus place is a quiet cul-de-sac and home to this beautiful family residence. Complemented by a duel-driveway and double garage with internal access. The entrance features a custom timber doorway which flows directly onto the spotted gum flooring that draws the eye toward the spacious and light filled living areas. To the left and off the entrance hall is the the master suite, with large walk-in-robe, dressing area and very generous ensuite.

Stylish design has created a home with a fresh and modern colour pallet, and featured timber floors blend together with carpets and out side decking. The living areas are open-plan to the dining and kitchen, providing a welcoming and comforting entertainment space. The wood fireplace accompanies this space perfectly, immediately making you feel at home, along with the ducted gas heating, this house is cozy and warm all through the winter months. There is the second living room, which can be sectioned off by sliding doors. Or left open giving the main living area a very generous livable space.

The Hampton Style kitchen with breakfast bar is lit beautifully, by large, industrial inspired, pendant lights. This is the heart of the home, this kitchen is stunning and functional. Behind the kitchen, you will find a butlers pantry with plenty of storage and a bench. From the kitchen you also access the laundry with direct access to the backyard and washing line.
