Cottage to renovate.

Here is a fantastic 3 bedroom wood clad cottage that is ready to renovate into your little slice of paradise.

Set over 1011 sqm of land the property is privately set amongst lovely gardens and in the quiet town of Captains Flat.

Captains flat is only 40 minutes to Queanbeyan and has a primary school, general store, swimming pool and lots of green space for playing on the weekends.

The home is a great design with living areas to one end and the bedrooms located close to the bathroom and separate toilet and laundry. A new covered deck provide the extra living outside and can be accessed via the living room.

This could be your chance to get into the market and capitalise on your investment through renovation and improvements to the property.

The owner is requesting to stay on at the property until securing another property. We will arrange a short term lease arrangement to be negotiated at point of sale.

During these interesting times please be aware inspections must be organised by way of private inspection. All social distancing must be 1.5m and if you have been exposed to sickness or others please advice the agent.
