120 Dolomite Drive, Mount Fairy

Breathtaking home surrounded by a peaceful 100 acres.

120 Dolomite Drive, Mt Fairy is a beautiful property. The acres have a lifetime of enjoyment and the luxurious home is simply stunning.

The driveway winds through gum trees to the magnificent homestead which is completely private and secluded.

Homestead

A cleverly designed range of indoor and outdoor spaces are ideal for all year round intimate dinners or grand parties. With three generous living rooms including both formal and informal settings and a beautiful formal dining room, there are separate spaces for the whole family. Neutral tones throughout the home allow features like the fireplace, open plan kitchen and the magnificent vistas through the windows to stand out.

Luxuriously appointed, this breathtaking home has four spacious bedrooms all with built in wardrobes. There is a lovely study placed centrally and has large north facing windows. The kitchen is perfect for modern day living with ample bench space and storage and with all the necessary appliances. Wrap around verandahs and sandstone paving lead to the courtyards and stone walling surrounding the house.

Garden and Land

The surrounding gardens were designed by award winning landscape architect Michael Bligh and built by Christopher Rowlands, two of Goulburns most experienced landscape designers.

Recent plantings of fruit trees and shrubs will grow into a swathe of colour and blend harmoniously with the environment. The landscape is peaceful and provides a sanctuary for an array of wildlife.

The 100 acres has open grasslands, snowgum bushland and Sandhills Creek
